- Work with hundreds of people over the course of your career.
- Mentor people.
- Help people learn about themselves, their strengths and abilities.
- Help a person change or develop his or her career.
- Help people make positive changes in their lives.

Benefits of State Employment

State employment offers an opportunity to obtain benefits and plan for future years.

- Paid internships available
- 12-14 paid holidays
- Employer retirement contribution
- Annual increment pay
- Training and development
- Free life insurance
- Paid vacation and sick leave
- Comprehensive medical insurance

The Job

Working for the state vocational rehabilitation agency, counselors focus on work-related counseling and guidance and assist individuals with disabilities in achieving employment outcomes. You will:

- Perform comprehensive assessments to examine eligibility factors, rehabilitation needs and capabilities/strengths of an applicant for vocational rehabilitation services.
- Work with consumers to develop individualized employment plans and arrange for needed services.
- Provide vocational rehabilitation and job placement services.
- Maintain and develop liaisons with referral services and service providers.
- Prepare case records and reports.

Do you have a bachelor's degree in counseling and guidance, social work, nursing, special education, or a related behavioral science or human service field?
