

3604 Maximum Allowable Amount for ALL Training Sponsorship. The Division may authorize funds for tuition, books, and supplies. The Counselor will provide counseling and guidance to the consumer regarding how they will pay the remainder of their costs through all other third-party resources (e.g., room and board, transportation, personal expenses, special fees, and miscellaneous costs). The Division's maximum allowable amount should not be confused with "unmet need".

A. Tuition.

1. The maximum amount the Division will pay for tuition training costs for vocational programs and the first two years of college level training will not exceed the average rate for an associate degree in WV.
2. The maximum amount the Division will pay for tuition training costs for Baccalaureate Programs will not exceed the average rate for a bachelor's degree in WV. This rate will only be paid after the client has completed a minimum of 60 college hours and has begun taking classes in the Baccalaureate program.
3. The maximum amount the Division will pay for tuition training costs for Graduate Programs will not exceed the average rate for a Graduate Degree in WV. Graduate level training will only be considered if the vocational goal requires post-graduate training.
